DR. LAURENCE STONE PARTICIPATES IN 2012 ANNUAL MEETING OF THE ACADEMY OF GENERAL DENTISTRY
Attends Advanced Soft Tissue Surgery Course

June 29, 2012 – Doylestown, PA - Laurence Stone, D.D.S., M.A.G.D., with a Doylestown-based practice in Cosmetic and General Dentistry, attended the Academy of General Dentistry's (AGD) 2012 Annual Meeting & Exhibits, June 21 – 24 at the Pennsylvania Convention Center. This was the 60th year for this event.

Dr. Stone participated in the continuing education course, "To Graft or Not to Graft: Materials, Methods and Much, Much More."

This course was structured for surgically-oriented implant dentists looking for an advanced experience or refresher program in advanced soft tissue surgery. The course providing a step-by-step approach to diagnosis and prescription, familiarizing those attending with various treatment procedures utilized for soft tissue grafting and the classification of soft tissue defects. New materials for grafting were discussed, as well as traditional approaches for predictable results.

This top-notch continuing education event offered world-renowned speakers, exciting lecture and participation courses, and quality exhibitors, all intended to provide learning opportunities for those in attendance.
