Dr. Larry Stone Is Recognized for Volunteer Work by Dental Lifeline Network • Pennsylvania

(July 2014) – Doylestown, PA – Dr. Larry Stone received a plaque from Dental Lifeline Network • Pennsylvania in recognition of his volunteer work for their Donated Dental Services (DDS) program.

According to Dental Lifeline Network, Presently 715 dentists and 151 laboratories throughout Pennsylvania volunteer for the DDS program, which provides dental services to people with disabilities, who are elderly or who are medically fragile. Since the program was launched in 1996, 3891 vulnerable people have received $11.4 million worth of services for seriously neglected diseases.

“I am honored to be able to contribute to this important program,” remarked Dr. Stone. “There are so many people right in our own back yards that are suffering and in need of our care.”
