DOYLESTOWN DENTIST INDUCTED IN INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE OF DENTISTS

(Doylestown, PA) –Laurence Stone, D.D.S., M.A.G.D, with a Doylestown-based practice in Cosmetic and General Dentistry, was inducted as a member of the International College of Dentists, at a ceremony held at its 76th Annual Convocation in Philadelphia, PA on October 7, 2005.

The International College of Dentists is the pre-eminent honorary organization of the worlds' outstanding dentists who have, by their actions, demonstrated an abiding interest and concern for their profession. Acceptance to this organization signifies that Dr. Stone has brought honor to the profession through devoted service and high ethical behavior.

The College was founded in 1920 by Dr. Louis Ottofy with the help of Dr. Tsurukichi Okumura of Japan, and incorporated in 1928. It now has representative chapters in more than 80 countries, and has approximately 10,000 members, 6,200 of which are in the United States.
